U. S. MAY TIGHTEN BAN ON JAPS

More Drastic Restrictions Against Immigration Planned.

AGREEMENT UNSATISFACTORY

Move On to Stop Loopholes in Existing Arrangement.

WASHINGTON — (By United Press)—Steps have been taken by the state department to make more drastic and absolute the restrictions against Japanese immigration, it was authoritatively learned Saturday.

This new development in the negotiations over Ambassador Shidehara's proposals against the proposed California law for absolute prohibition of land by Japanese, was regarded as highly significant in Washington.

SEEKS EXCLUSION PLAN

Roland S. Morris, American ambassador to Japan, has brought up to the negotiations with Shidehara's study of the "gentlemen's agreement" for the purpose of devising some means for any slight exclusion of Japanese immigration. Morris is conducting the negotiations for the United States.

While no plan is known to have been agreed upon, it is understood that the state department has taken the position that the "gentlemen's agreement" is not entirely satisfactory. Under this agreement, Japan voluntarily undertook to stop immigration to the United States.

JAPS STILL COME

Governor Stephens of California, charges that despite the "gentlemen's agreement," the Japanese population in that state is rapidly becoming larger. While the agreement has never been published, it was pointed out Saturday that there are loopholes in it, allowing Japanese still to enter the United States.

For instance, the agreement does not prohibit relatives coming from Japan joining Japanese already in the United States.

A revision of the "gentlemen's agreement" or its abandonment for another pact, is regarded likely as the result of the stand of the state department for absolute prohibition of Japanese immigration.

JAPS SEEK RAILWAY

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press)—Evidence of a Japanese desire for complete domination of the Chinese Eastern railway, now administered by an inter-allied commission, was reported to the Chinese government in a recent memorandum by a commission of inquiry sent to Manchuria and Siberia.

A copy received Saturday in diplomatic circles is dated July 23, 1920, and shows it was prepared by a commission of three counselors to the Chinese government, consisting of an American, French and British representatives.

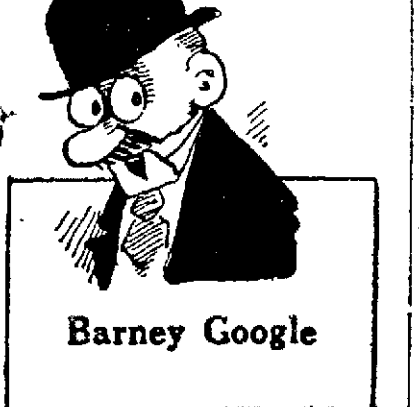

The commission declared that from evidence collected as to bandit raids in the vicinity of the railroad, which spans the Chinese province of Manchuria, it was "plain that certain bands were armed with Japanese guns."

Joseph Dedi and Robert O'Neil were sentenced to die on January 1, for wife slaying.

According to the police, they found in Mrs. Solomon's home between $25,000 and $30,000 worth of stolen goods.

FIRST RAIL TEST CASE DECIDED

Brotherhood Engineer Denied Seniority by State Court.

U. S. BOARD OVERRULED

Non-Union Man Granted Injunction
in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(By Associated Press).—Overruling the railway adjustment board created by the Esch-Cummings bill, Judge Ernest Clark of the Kentucky court of appeals has granted an injunction to W. W. Gregg, Louisville and Nashville passenger conductor, to prevent his being supplanted on his run by William Pennybaker, freight conductor.

The case was appealed by Gregg from the circuit court at Louisville when he was refused a restraining order.

The suit grew out of the fact that Pennybaker asked for Gregg's job under the seniority rule contract of the railroad and the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors, and was upheld by railway adjustment board No. 1, Washington.

Pennybaker is a brotherhood member, but as Gregg is not, he asked the circuit court at Louisville for the injunction on the ground that the seniority contract did not apply to him. The injunction was refused and he appealed to the court of appeals.

It is said this is the first case of its kind ever contested in civil courts.

Akron, Ohio.—(By United Press).—Eight men, four of them Mexicans, sawed their way out of the county jail early Saturday morning.

One Jumps from Window; Other

CLEVELAND.—(By United Press).—Vernon and Jerome Edwards, brothers, aged four and six years, respectively, were fighting hard for life in a hospital here Saturday, to recover from injuries received when their home caught fire Friday night.

Jerome jumped out of a third-story window, while Vernon, frightened to the point of insanity, crawled under a bed, where he was found almost suffocated by the smoke.

The children were asleep and alone, their parents having left for a visit to friends, when the fire broke out.

Jerome tried to find a way down stairs, but escape was cut off by fire. He perched on the window sill and two men held out an overcoat. The force of his fall tore the coat from the men's hands and he crashed to the pavement.

Firemen arrived and found Vernon unconscious under his bed. Physicians said Saturday the children have a slight chance for recovery.

MINERS TO VOTE

British Coal Diggers to Decide Strike Question.

LONDON.—(By United Press).—The question of a nation-wide strike will again be referred to a direct vote of the coal miners.

The strike, originally voted for September 25, was postponed until Saturday. At a meeting of miners' executives and delegates late Friday, it was decided to put off the strike until October 16, to permit a national ballot on the latest compromise offer of the owners.

The proposal made at a joint meeting of miners and owners representatives and Premier Lloyd George, was for a wage increase of 25 cents a day as soon as it became evident production would reach 240,000,000 tons a year and an additional increase of 25 cents when production reached 248,000,000 tons.

The referendum will be held October 11 and 12. On October 14, the miners' delegates will meet again to take up the results of the vote.

Meantime, 2,000 miners in Wales, objecting to the "slowness" of the negotiations, have gone on strike.

MURRAY CRANE IS DEAD

Former U. S. Senator Dies of Sleeping Sickness.

UNCONSCIOUS FOR FOUR DAYS

Stricken While Engaged in His Last Political Fight.

DALTON, Mass.—(By Associated Press).—W. Murray Crane, former United States senator and for years a power in the Republican party, died early Saturday at Sugar Hill, the family home.

The end came quietly after four days of heavy sleep, almost of unconsciousness. The sleeping sickness had set in after an illness of several months and it was this which immediately preceded death, the actual cause of which was said by his physicians to be encephalitis or inflammation of the brain. At his bedside with the knowledge that he was expiring, were his wife, his son, W. Murray Crane, Jr., and two sisters.

National politics, in which Senator Crane had been an active figure for years, were closely conducted with the illness which was a precursor of the end. The senator, who had been national committee man of the Republican party in Massachusetts for years, announced his retirement before the national convention but went to Chicago to make a fight for Republican endorsement of the league of nations.

HIS LAST FIGHT

His health was not good, but those associated with him said Saturday that he decided to make what probably was his last fight in politics for the issue that lay close to his heart. He retired from Chicago further impaired in health. He emerged from semi-retirement next to attend the exercises at Northampton, July 27, the formal notification to Governor Coolidge, his long time friend, of nomination for the vice presidency. His health was not equal to the double exertions of a long standing and he suffered a collapse, recovering, however, sufficiently to be removed to his home.

The senator rallied for a time from his depression, but failed again several weeks ago, and it was feared the end was near. But the vitality which had carried him thru years of work without vacation, asserted itself and again strength came to him and it appeared that he was to recover. Within the last week, however, the heart action became weak and long spells of drowsiness were succeeded by heavy sleep. He appeared to rally at times but finally lapsed into partial coma, ended by death.

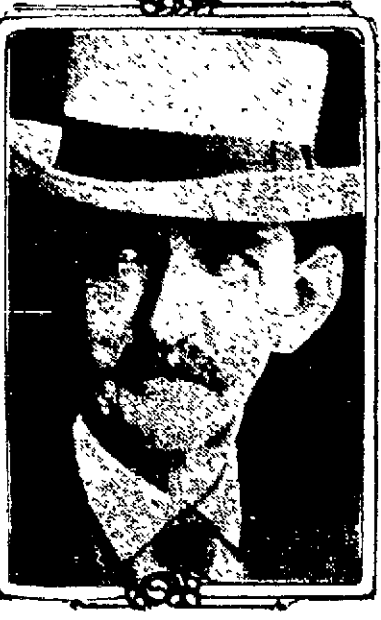

NOT AN ORATOR

An outstanding characteristic of Winthrop Murray Crane, former Governor of Massachusetts and for two terms a United States Senator from this state, was the fact that he attained eminence in public life without being an orator. Although he served eight years in the Senate it was said of him that he never made what really could be called a "speech" in that body. The successor of Senator Hoar, whose wit and eloquence rang thru the halls of congress, Crane's chief claim to distinction was that of silent leadership and of a party mediator.

Senator Crane on more than one occasion in the interval from 1904 to 1912, when Republican differences developed and party measures were endangered, demonstrated his ability as a harmonizer and by using his persuasive powers in personal interviews with other senators, with whom he was popular, restored peace.

67 YEARS OLD

Born in Dalton, Mass., April 23, 1853, the son of Zenas M. Crane, a paper manufacturer, young Crane was educated in the public schools and at Williston seminary. He never attended college but, after leaving the seminary, entered the paper mills founded by his grandfather at Dalton and in them he maintained an interest thru his life. For many years these mills produced the paper used by the United States government in engraving its currency, bonds and notes. Because of his interest in this industry and his desire to continue with it, Mr. Crane, at the beginning of President Roosevelt's administration, declined an invitation to enter his cabinet as Secretary of the Treasury.

C. C. MEMBERSHIP DRIVE ENDS

Goal Fixed at 1,200, Is Exceeded in Final Effort.

377 ADDED IN LAST REPORT

Drive's End Is Only Beginning,
Speakers Tell at Banquet.

The Lima Chamber of Commerce expansion drive ended in a blaze of glory Friday night when the goal of 1,200 new members was passed with a margin of 33. A total of 377 members was reported at the Friday evening meeting, 148 being turned in by the navy division of the workers and 141 by the army. The special committee turned in 88 members.

The great banquet hall of the Knights of Columbus building on W. North-st was filled a quarter of an hour before the banquet was scheduled to start and additional tables were provided for the overflow.

Following a song service led by Fred Calvert, in which the throng joined enthusiastically, and the report of the captains, Judge Leslie A. Pease of Dunkirk, New York, gave an address.

Judge Pease, who comes from Congressman Daniel A. Reed's home town, highly praised the ability of Reed as a chamber of commerce expert. "He knows more about city building than any man in the United States," Pease declared.

He declared the successful termination of such a drive as this made Friday evening the greatest day in Lima's history. "Is there anything that the city of Lima could want to do that she couldn't do, with this bunch working together? Your city's success and future is assured because you are on the right track," the speaker declared.

"The work of the Chamber of Commerce is not much to bring new industries to the city as to make your town so attractive for those who live here that they will want to stay, and for those who visit it that they will want to live here," Pease said. "The world will not don't have to look upon so much misery and filth and unhappiness. The work of a chamber of commerce is not to make more money flow thru the pockets of a few, but to make the city a more attractive place for all its inhabitants."

Following Pease's address, Congressman Reed told the assembled members of the chamber that with the completion of this campaign their work is only begun.

He advised that a city planner be brought to Lima to lay out an intelligent plan for Lima's growth.

The work of the boys scouts was particularly emphasized, and it was urged that the chamber get behind the Y. W. C. A. in order to provide healthful recreation and amusement for the girls as well as the boys of the city.

John Williams of the navy division was presented with a silk flag, as a prize for turning in the greatest number of memberships. Morris Rosenbloom's team won high honors in the army division.

PROBE GOES BACK TO 1908 GAME

Investigators Now Made Special Body for Inquiry.

TRIBUNAL CONTROL LIKELY

May Be Removed from Private Interests' Hands.

CHICAGO.—(By Associated Press).—The Cook-co grand jury, which has been conducting the investigation into the alleged "fixing" of the 1919 world's series, Saturday was made a special body to continue its search of baseball history for evidence of crookedness. The regular sessions of the grand jury were completed Friday.

There will be no session of the jury Saturday other than a perfunctory one to dispose of the formalities making it a special body. Testimony will be resumed Monday, however, and on Tuesday John J. McCraw, manager of the New York Giants; Fred Toney, Giant pitcher, and Benny Kauff, former outfielder of the New York club, will take the stand to conclude evidence relating to Helene Zimmerman, Hal Chase and Lee Magee, National players, who are alleged to have conspired to throw ball games during the 1919 season.

Kauff and Toney, it is understood, will testify that Zimmerman offered them $500 and $200 respectively to throw a game. They refused.

The grand jury will delve into reports of dishonesty in the national pastime stretching back thru more than a decade, according to State's Attorney MacLay Hoyne.

In connection with it, it was reported that Charles Dooin, former manager of the Philadelphia National League team, would be subpoenaed. Dooin, in Atlantic City, said that in 1908 a man handed him a package containing $8,000, and remarked that there was $10,000 more in a bank if Dooin would "throw" the next game to New York. TRIBUNAL PROPOSED

The present investigation, it was said, is hastening a plan which has been under discussion for some time among sporting authorities and others to put the control of the game under a national tribunal, composed of men prominent in the country not now connected with baseball, rather than to have it controlled by private interests.

For major clubs, the Chicago White Sox, The Chicago Cubs, the New York Giants and the Pittsburgh Nationals have endorsed the plan, and it was understood that the Boston Americans and National League clubs also approved its adoption.

Already baseball men are conferring as to the personnel of the tribunal. Such names as General Pershing, William H. Taft, Judge K. M. Landis and Major General Leonard Wood were mentioned, but it was admitted that none of these men had been approached.

QUICK REPLY ASKED

The plan has been outlined to the president of every club in the major and minor leagues and requests were made for a quick reply to the statement sent out which was signed by the Chicago American and Pittsburgh and New York National League clubs.

Reports received Saturday from New York said that John J. Sullivan, mentioned in the grand jury testimony here, declared that there really was a "great big master mind" behind the deal which involved the payment of money to White Sox players to throw the 1919 series.

"Within the next 48 hours I will be on my way to Chicago and when I get there I will tell the grand jury or any other officials the whole inside story of the frame-up," Sullivan is quoted as saying.

Sullivan who said he handled several hundred thousand dollars in bets on the last world's series is expected to arrive here Tuesday.

"They have made me the goat and I'm not going to stand for it," he added. "I know the whole history of the deal from beginning to end. I know the big man whose money it was that paid off the White Sox players and I'm going to name him."

FINAL APPEAL MADE TO M'SWINEY TO TAKE FOOD, LORD MAYOR REFUSES

LONDON.—What is described as a final appeal to Terence MacSwiney to accept food was made by a doctor in Brixton prison Saturday morning, according to the noon bulletin of the Irish Self-Determination League on the condition of the hunger striking lord mayor of Cork.

The mayor, however, although he was told he was sinking fast, declined to change his decision to abstain from taking nourishment, which he declared was irrevocable. This was the 51st day of Mayor MacSwiney's hunger strike.

OHIO CITIES TO TURN CLOCKS BACK TONIGHT

COLUMBUS.—Columbus and many other Ohio towns and cities will go back on winter time schedule Saturday night after having "saved an hour of daylight" all summer by having their clocks advanced one hour.

Local jewelers offer a bit of free advice in the proper way of moving the hands of clocks and watches. The proper way, they say, is to move the clock around 11 hours. They say that moving the hands of a clock backwards may destroy the utility of the time-piece.

FRIDAY'S HERO — Grover Alexander. The National League's leading pitcher beat the Cards in a 17-inning game 3 to 2. The Cub star was found for 16 hits, but kept them scattered.

Cleveland made sure of at least a tie in the pennant race by splitting even in a double-header with the Tigers. Sewell, the new Indian shortstop threw the ball away and lost the first game 5 to 4. Caldwell won the second game 10 to 6.

Gleason's reconstructed White Sox couldn't hit behind poor pitching and the Browns beat them 8 to 6, dimming their chances for the pennant.

Judge and Garrity hit homers of Shanner, a Mack recruit, and helped the Senators beat the Athletics 13 to 8.

The Brooklyn regulars beat the Giants 4 to 3 in the first game but a team of strong string men lost the second game 4 to 3.

SMALL CHANCE FOR SOX

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—The Chicago White Sox had only a fighting chance for the American League pennant today as they went into the second game of the series with St. Louis, which rounds out the 1920 schedule.

Trailing Cleveland by two games, the lone hope of the Sox lay in capturing both contests here, which would allow them to pull up on even terms with the Indians if the latter dropped their final pair at Detroit. In the event, both clubs would finish the season with 97 victories and 57 defeats, necessitating a play-off for the championship and the right to contend with Brooklyn in the world's series.

FIGHT TWICE POSTPONED

CLEVELAND—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, and Jack Britton, holder of the welterweight title, will make another attempt to get together in the ring for their second scheduled fight bout at American League Park here tonight. The bout, originally set for last Thursday night, was twice postponed because of the cold rainy weather. Both champions are keeping in condition working out at gymnastiums.

HIGH SCHOOL MIRROR SUBSCRIBERS MOUNT AS STUDENTS WORK

Subscriptions for the Central High School Mirror numbered 650 when a final count was taken after a big rally and subscription campaign had been held Friday.

This is about 75 more subscribers than the Mirror had last year, and a number are expected to subscribe Monday.

Two mass meetings were held Friday, one for Senior High and the other for Junior High school to urge subscriptions. Principal R. E. Orshenauer opened both meetings with a short introductory address. Jackson Adams, editor-in-chief, James Weadock, advertising manager, and Bill Cunningham, circulation manager, all gave reports on the progress of the campaign. At the Junior High mass meeting Hope Hollister, alumni editor and Helen Schneider, Junior High editor also gave talks.

Senior High school has to date over 500 subscribers with Junior High about 130.

The Mirror is the high school magazine published monthly thru the school year, with a year book or annual at the end of the year. Miss Zella Foster is the faculty adviser for the paper.

STRENGTH OF TEAMS IN BIG SERIES COMPARED

In the last of his four articles comparing the world series teams, Henry L. Farrell, United Press sports editor, analyzes the strength of the respective clubs behind the bat.

NEW YORK—Cleveland is a poor place to sell "Schalk stock." Try to tell any of the Forest City fans that the plucky Chicago catcher in the best backstop in baseball and you'll be as popular as one of the "White Sox eight."

One of the biggest of winter indoor sports in an argument about the relative ability of Schalk and Steve O'Neill, the star Cleveland catcher.

The verdict is largely geographical, depending upon the proximity to Cleveland and Chicago.

It is a generally conceded fact, however, that Schalk and O'Neill are the best catchers in baseball.

The position behind the plate is of the greatest importance in the world series. In practically all of the baseball classics of recent years, a star catcher has been a big factor in the victory—Mark Gowdy, for instance in 1914, and others, including Kling, Brennan, Schang, Carrigan and Schalk.

In the catching department, Cleveland has it all over Brooklyn as the National League team is weaker behind the bat than the ordinary pennant winning team.

Krueger and Miller, who do the bulk of the work for "Uncle Robbie" are fair receivers, but they suffer by comparison with the great O'Neill.

The chunky Irish Indian, has had one of the greatest seasons of his career this year. He is batting

DETROIT—The Cleveland Indians, American League leaders, went into the third game of the final series against Detroit today, requiring but one more victory to clinch the pennant.

Yesterday's even break in a double-header with the Tigers, while Chicago lost to St. Louis, widened the gap between the Indians and Sox to two full games and assured Cleveland of a tie and a post season series, even though they lose the remaining games to Detroit and Chicago wins the two remaining on its schedule.

The cold weather which cut yesterday's attendance to about 1,000 continued today. Probable pitching selections were Coveleskie for Cleveland and Daus for Detroit.

SISLER AND HORNSBY CERTAIN OF SEASON BATTING HONORS

CHICAGO—With the close of the major league season tomorrow, George Sisler, star first baseman of the St. Louis Americans, and Roger Hornsby of the St. Louis Nationals, seem to be certain of the 1920 batting championship of their respective leagues.

Ruth closed the season with a record of 34 home runs. Sisler, according to averages compiled today, safely in front in the American League race with an average of .405, with Tris Speaker of Cleveland, second with .387. Joe Jackson, the suspended Chicagoan, is third with .382, and Ruth, the home run monarch, fourth with .378.

The averages include games of Wednesday.

In the National League Nicholson of Pittsburgh is second to Hornsby with an average of .359. Hornsby's average was .370. Young of New York pulled up in third place with .354, and Roush of Cincinnati fourth with .339.

Hartley of Columbus is the real batting leader of the American Association with an average of .351.

LIMA ATHLETES MAKE ON COLLEGE TEAMS

Roy Sakemiller, former Central high school student, is now one of the most promising football men at Grove City College, Grove City, Pa.

Sakemiller was of the class of '19 in Central High. He played varsity football and basketball at Central for three years where he was an expert at fullback on the football team and guard on the basketball team.

He entered Grove City College last year and made both the basketball and football teams. This year, it is said, he will probably play halfback on the varsity.

Robert Thorn, former Lima High School coach, is now head coach at Grove City College. Coach Thorn was largely responsible for Sakemiller's playing as it was he that developed Roy back in his high school days.

Harold Bible, another former high school athlete, is also at Grove City, where he is showing up good, on the football team.

INDIANS NEED ONE MORE

DETROIT—The Cleveland Indians, American League leaders, went into the third game of the final series against Detroit today, requiring but one more victory to clinch the pennant.

Yesterday's even break in a double-header with the Tigers, while Chicago lost to St. Louis, widened the gap between the Indians and Sox to two full games and assured Cleveland of a tie and a post season series, even though they lose the remaining games to Detroit and Chicago wins the two remaining on its schedule.

The cold weather which cut yesterday's attendance to about 1,000 continued today. Probable pitching selections were Coveleskie for Cleveland and Daus for Detroit.

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN PAPER BOLTS

THE Chicago Post, owned by the same man who owns the Indianapolis Star, has declared unequivocally for the League of Nations, setting forth impressive reasons for its refusal to follow Republican leadership against the document which is the hope of the world. They who merely read partisan papers of the unscrupulous sort, and hear party orators of the sand lot variety may perhaps be ignorant of the fact that the league which Watson solemnly tells us has been abandoned in Europe, has actually prevented two wars already—between Poland and Lithuania, and between Sweden and Finland. This, says the Post, is reason enough for supporting the league which made possible the prevention of two wars. Admitting that wars between the countries mentioned might not affect us in this country, the Post reminds us that "it is out of such controversies that great wars grow" when "the sparks get beyond control and the conflagration follows." These wars have been prevented by the League of Nations. And, adds the Post, having in mind the hypocritical proposal of Harding, "it is to be noted that it is not some vague association of nations, nebulously nascent in the minds of certain gentlemen, but the League of Nations, created at Versailles and operating under the much abused covenant, which commands the confidence of Sweden, Finland and Lithuania, and acts now as the world's defense against new strife." And the Post's conclusion sums up all:

The best answer to the league's opponents is the league itself. It moves with the wise deliberation to the doings of its appointed tasks. Quietly it has been charting out the field of work while men have jeered and maligned and misrepresented. In spite of all efforts to weaken and belittle it, we see the nations turning to it for help and guidance. Hiram Johnson, scoffs at it, but Sweden and Finland trust it; Borah proclaims it a maker of wars, but Poland and Lithuania lay down their arms and agree to follow its path of peace.

America cannot afford to stand aloof from the League of Nations. Whatever its defects, it is justifying itself. By its service it is claiming America's co-operation in making it stronger, wiser and fitter for the guiding of the world's welfare.

It is worthy of comment that Mr. Schaffer's Indianapolis Star is again standing for the league. Nothing surely could be so ghastly as for America to subscribe to the Harding program to destroy this league which has done these things, and then snugly suggest to the nations that have been served to join with us in forming some other "association of nations" which even is not clear even in the mind of the nominee. The League of Nations—they call it 'Wilson's League of Nations'—is here to stay, and America will either enter with the forty odd nations, or remain without with Russia, Mexico and Turkey—"the Bush league," as our cartoonist aptly calls it.

Harding's Deliberate Misrepresentation

IN slamming the door to upon his Irish victims, Mr. Harding, after declaring that officially this country has no business interfering with England's rule of Ireland, thought it advisable to throw out a little cant in the hope of softening the disappointment. And so he said:

I have said, as I truly believe, that under the provisions of the League of Nations the Irish question is internal or domestic, and I recall distinctly that at the hearings before the senate foreign relations committee the American advocates of Irish independence bitterly opposed the league as proposed because it not only closed the door to Ireland but committed us to the use of force to maintain territorial integrity as it exists today.

It was really not becoming a candidate for president to resort to such a cheap misrepresentation of the facts. Mr. Harding knows full well that the covenant guarantees the territorial integrity of existing states only "against external aggression," and even Mr. Harding is not so stupid as to believe that this means that the world is to put down rebellions and revolutions that come from within. This was such a flagrant fraud that even the most hardened offenders against the truth have long since dropped that particular falsehood, and it is distressing to find it resurrected by a presidential nominee.

And since Mr. Harding is so much impressed, will he be so kind as to point out just how the league "closes the door to Ireland"? And since he admits that if elected president he won't turn his hand over to do anything for Ireland, what difference does it make to him if the door is closed?

"READER-INTEREST" IN ADVERTISING

IT is easy to believe in those who believe in themselves. It's exactly the natural and proper thing to do.

We may not always accept the full measure of a merchant's own yard-stick, but most people believe that enthusiasm in advertising must be based upon something real and desirable. And most people are right.

The merchant who half advertises his store emphasizes his half-belief in it. But the merchant who knows that he has the thing you want and that he can sell it to you at a lower price than his competition, touches your self-interest and thus centers your attention for the moment upon his store. He convinces you that his store means something definite to you.

The merchant's advertising must carry enthusiasm and conviction—or it cannot deliver them. His advertising is his point of contact with the possible customers. It must be charged with truth, with facts, with news.

And likewise, it must not be stinted in space—for this is an "interest-killer." The reader is accustomed to finding the big news story of the day treated in a big way. And the same expectation extends to the big news stories of the stores.

It pays the advertiser to develop the public and it pays the public to watch with critical eye the bargains the merchants are offering—and take advantage of them.

MISS LIMA: "That noise you heard in the east was merely Senator Harding changing his position the ninth time on the League of Nations."

Women's Questions Answered

Q. Why is it necessary for me to register, that I may be permitted to vote?

A. Since the adoption of the suffrage amendment, placing women on an equality with men in the matter of voting, it is necessary that women register the same as men if they expect to exercise the right of their franchise, recently granted with the adoption of the amendment by Tennessee, the 36th state. Those women of Lima who did not register on September 30, must do so on October 7, 15 or 16 if they expect to vote in the November election. To be eligible to register or to vote, women must be 21 years old or over. Women residing in the country districts or in cities or villages in Allen-co outside of Lima are not required to register.

WHY 5%

The question is frequently asked, "Why does a Savings and Loan Company pay five per cent interest on deposits instead of a lower rate?" It is a fair question and here is a fair answer from The Allen County Savings and Loan Company as to its method of business.

This Company makes loans only upon approved real estate security and the business has been so carefully managed that not one dollar of any loan has ever been lost; fire insurance policies covering buildings on the land mortgaged must always be made payable to the Company in case of loss by fire, withdrawals of deposits are usually permitted when called for, but the Company reserves the right to require notice of withdrawal; and a lower "overhead" expense makes a wide margin of profit necessary.

All loans made by this Company are made upon property in or near Lima and help to build up our own community and increase the value of local property and the number of home owners.

This is a Short Letter, but it Brings a Message of Importance to every Woman.

MARMON SHOWS ECONOMY RECORD

Tom Roberts of Denver sells motor cars but he drives them on long journeys for recreation, to find out how they are built and to learn their maximum or minimum performance.
Every time Nordyke and Macdonald Company introduces a new model or design, Roberts goes to the Chicago apolls plant and drives home one of the new type cars. With a 1917 Marmon Speedster he introduced a short time ago. Mr. Roberts went to Indianapolis with his small son and drove a speed for back to Denver. He accomplished the 1100 mile journey in three days actual running time and did no driving at night.
The first day while the car was still new he did not attempt to speed beyond a twenty mile an average gait, but the following day when he knew the car was thoroughly broken in "gave it the gas" and at times averaged between fifty and sixty miles for long distances, over roads which he reports to be the finest he has ever seen.

In spite of the high speed for the greater part of the journey and the fact that the car was a new one which ordinarily does not produce as great fuel economy as does an older car, Mr. Roberts made a gasoline economy record of better than fourteen miles to the gallon. Aside from changing oil at Kansas City for the good of the motor, the car used but three quarts of oil in the entire journey and it arrived in Denver in the very best of condition.
Because of the trip Roberts says that for a two passenger car this new Speedster is a very adequate and comfortable vehicle for long distance touring, and that it has all the speed the sportiest motorist desires.

Majestic Furnaces Keep Homes Warm

Right now is the time that all those home-loving men who would not take care of having a heating plant installed in their home before the cold weather struck this section of the country, are wishing that they had heeded the advice of dealers in heating apparatus.
There is more than one family who are not as warm as might be since they have depended on gas of which there has so far been a very little. It usually takes a little time to install a furnace or in fact most any other kind of heating apparatus and dealers in stoves, furnaces and other heating paraphernalia are being kept very busy in the last few days taking care of the late comers who insist on having their work taken care of immediately.

E. D. Uptigraph, heating contractor and agent for Majestic furnaces is one of these. Mr. Uptigraph has already installed a number of Majestic furnaces to the satisfaction of all the purchasers. A great many homes in Lima will be kept warm this winter with Majestic furnaces.

K. of C. Dining Room is Popular

The new Knights of Columbus dining room under the supervision of Mrs. Anna Dimond has at once been accepted by the public of Lima as one of the very first class places in Lima to eat. The K. of C. dining room in the basement of the new Recreation Building is now enjoying a thriving business and not without deserving such attention.

The meals which are served are delicious beyond comparison and are dished in plentiful helpings.
If you would like a home-like place to take a meal and haven't time to go to your own home then it would pay you to try the K. C. dining room and you'll surely be satisfied with the delicious things you are given to eat and will undoubtedly by make this place one of your stopping places in the uptown district.

South Side Has Decorating Firm

Many south side residents of Lima are figuring on decorating their homes before real winter starts but are unaware that they have a decorating concern in that very end of town. Wanamaker and Stopher at 827 S. Main street are as good as can be found in this section of Ohio and are willing to guarantee their workmanship and the work.

What more could be asked when you are thinking of having one of all the rooms of your home decorated. All that you need do is to call this concern by phone and explain what you want done and they will shortly offer you a figure on the work, and you may then be satisfied that the work will be done to the complete satisfaction of everyone concerned.

Electricity Is Useful Servant

With the gas supply as low as usual many people are turning their attention to electrical apparatus to keep their homes warm and to prepare meals as well as to take care of the many other household duties.
Sweeping, washing, ironing and many other things are being done with electricity.

There is an element of safety and cleanliness about using electricity to do housework which cannot be outdistanced by anything which has yet been invented and more and more housewives are beginning to see the economy of electricity.

Where gas and coal fail electricity is bound to do the work even better than either of these forms and to do it in less time and with a great deal less effort on the part of the housewife.

J. C. Sweeney, dealer in motors, washing machines, electric sweepers, lamps and all things electrical is one busy man these days. Mr. Sweeney stated that it is almost unable to take care of the vast increase in business with the noticeable lack of help to be had.

Mr. Sweeney is specializing in all kinds of house wiring, store and office fixtures and electrical repairing of all kinds. Altho his shop at 110 East Market street has not been established for long, the business is to be commended upon its rapid growth.
